

Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Links to subject curriculum are:

History

Spiritual	2019 Framework p. 58 Provision for the spiritual development of pupils includes developing their: ability to be reflective about their own beliefs (religious or otherwise) and perspective on life interest in, and respect for, different people's faiths, feelings and values sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them, use of imagination and creativity in their learning and willingness to reflect on their experiences.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ To experience wonderment for that which has gone before both in their living memory and before. ▪ To value their own identity and existence and to be reflective of others lives in the past. ▪ To value both the achievements and the spirituality of those in the past.
Moral	2019 Framework p. 58 Provision for the moral development of pupils includes developing their: ability to recognise the difference between right and wrong and to readily apply this understanding in their own lives, and recognise legal boundaries and, in so doing, respect the civil and criminal law of England Understanding of the consequences of their behaviour and actions (Linton Infants Behaviour Policy) interest in investigating and offering reasoned views about moral and ethical issues and ability to understand and appreciate the viewpoints of others on these issues.	To consider the moral stances of events in the past. To reflect upon historical issues both in their locality and in the wider world
Social	2019 Framework p. 58 Provision for the social development of pupils includes developing their: use of a range of social skills in different contexts, for example working and socialising with other pupils, including those from different religious, ethnic and socio-economic background. willingness to participate in a variety of communities and social settings, including by volunteering, cooperating well with others and being able to resolve conflicts effectively Acceptance of and engagement with the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. They will develop and demonstrate skills and attitudes that will allow them to participate fully in and contribute positively to life in modern Britain.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ To develop empathy for the lives of others and to try to see things from a different perspective ▪ To learn how past societies were organised and the resultant social issues
Cultural	2019 Framework p. 59 Provision for the cultural development of pupils includes developing their: understanding and appreciation of the wide range of cultural influences that have shaped their own heritage and that of others understanding and appreciation of the range of different cultures in the school and further afield as an essential element of their preparation for life in modern Britain ability to recognise, and value, the things shared in common across cultural, religious, ethnic and socio-economic communities knowledge of Britain's democratic parliamentary system and its central role in shaping our history and values, and in continuing to develop Britain willingness to participate in and respond positively to artistic, musical, sporting and cultural opportunities interest in exploring, improving understanding of and showing respect for different faiths and cultural diversity and the extent to which they understand, accept, respect and celebrate diversity and things we share in common. This is shown by their respect and attitudes towards different religious, ethnic and socio-economic groups in the local, national and global communities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ To reflect upon the role of art in the past ▪ To consider those individuals in history that shaped culture